Vienna, November 22, 2023

The Advertising & Media Psychology Research Group at the Department of Communication, a subunit of the Faculty of Social Sciences of the University of Vienna, seeks support within the ERC-funded project Digital Hate: Perpetrators, Audiences, and (Dis)Empowered Targets (<https://digihate.univie.ac.at/>), led by Professor Jörg Matthes.

Job description

We are looking for highly-motivated individuals, ideally BA/MA students in a social science discipline, who fluently speak English (mandatory) and one of either Hungarian, Swedish and/or French to support short-term translation work within the project. The work (estimated to be 10-15 hours per language) is being paid on the basis of a contract for work and services (“Werkvertrag”) totaling to € 500,00 and can be done fully in remote. Depending on funding and workload in the project, a longer-term collaboration is possible.

If you are interested in working with us, please include the following documents in your short application:

- Brief letter of motivation
- Curriculum vitae and transcript of records

Applications in English including a brief letter of motivation should be submitted as a single PDF via eMail to Mario Freyer (mario.freyer@univie.ac.at) no later than December 3, 2023. If you have any questions or queries, please contact Mario Freyer.
